

Global cooperation in redressing international crimes in Ukraine

Prof. Iryna Zaverukha

Victorious Justice...

Oct. 24, 1945: Ratification of the UN Charter

Nov. 20, 1945- Oct. 1, 1946: Nuremberg Trials

Gulag: 1934—1956;
As of 1953 more than 2.4 million people were imprisoned; more than 465,000 were political prisoners

Russian Ambassador to the UN Security Council presided over the meeting of the Security Council just minutes after President Putin declared a war on Ukraine.

The ICC is an independent judiciary, and its design doesn't threaten sovereignty of the states

- Principle of Complementarity grants the states the primary right to investigate and prosecute the crimes within the ICC's jurisdiction
 - The ICC has jurisdiction over a case only if no state is genuinely investigating or prosecuting that case or has done so:
 - the state is unwilling or unable genuinely to investigate and to prosecute
 - Sufficient gravity criteria
